

Guidelines for Article Preparation

Prepare articles in 12-point type with 1-inch margins, double spacing throughout (including notes and references). Please submit in Microsoft word format or equivalent. Please preface your article submission with a 100–150-word abstract, a concise summary that conveys the central focus of the piece. Include notes and references in the word count (approximately 6000-7000 words), but exclude the abstract, tables and figure captions (if applicable).

Notes should be as few as possible and should appear at the end of the text. Use parenthetical in-text citation and author–date formatting for references, as per the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2003), pp. 620–24.

A full list of works cited within the article as well as a list of further reading (headed “Bibliography”) should follow the text.

On the title page of your article submission, please include the word count of your submission as well as your name, affiliation, e-mail address, and complete mailing address. This page will be removed before sending the document (electronically) for double-blind reviewing.

Except for names or terms already well known in English, please use the following Romanization: Pinyin (Chinese); Hepburn (Japanese); Revised (with respect to Korean romanization). Note also that Asian scripts are supported by Center for Khmer Studies.
